Rev. E. W. Minton is on the sick list. Isaac Back is also dangerously ill, suffering from venereal disease.

Arbury Brooks is in our midst prospecting for our school. Mrs. Nannie Kash is also an applicant. Both come well recommended, so I presume that either would render satisfaction.

Mrs. Breck Little, nee Puss Combs, left here a few days since for Paris, Ill., to visit friends and relatives in that State, and in search of health. We hope she may return to her family fully restored.

Mrs. Lizzie Calhoun, of Paxton, passed through here yesterday enroute to visit relatives and friends in Menifee county. She will take in the scenes at Rothwell and view the train as it climbs to the top of Beaver Hill before she returns.

R. S. Rose of this neighborhood is talking up a company of volunteers for the next call to go under our Jailer, I. W. Combs, of Campton. There are a number of boys in this vicinity who would like to go under such a man as Mr. Combs.

Our efficient County School Superintendent, H. Clay Lacy, was called to Hazel Green Saturday to decide a point of school law. We do not know just what it was, but as we learn there were some eight or ten attorneys there on that day there must be some fellow in the county "want'n to keep a skool."

It has been reported here that Matt Long, whose father and mother live at or near Sellars, and who has so many friends in and around Daysboro, was wounded in the battle at Santiago. Many are the tears that have been shed, for Matt is well known here and loved by all who know him. We can only hope for his speedy recovery, and long for his return to his friends here at home, and to hear him tell of battles fought and victories won.

In company with Moody Lacy, Sunday, we went to the Caskey school house to church, and on our return home we stopped at Consolation, and for about one hour listened to Charles Johnson preach to the "Drake" and some other "ducks," and we are prepared to say that Rev. Johnson is the Sam Jones of the mountains. Among some funny things he said were, "I am not married to anything but my wife, but I believe I love my God just a little bit better. Girls don't marry a drunkard under any circumstances, and don't marry a man that drinks coffee, if you can keep from it."

AT ELIZABETHTOWN John D. Bush, who the latter part of June assaulted Dorell Thomas with a two-bladed ax and cut away part of his left lung, was held to answer under bond of $300. Thomas is not yet out of danger and can never fully recover. Bush's father was a nephew of Abraham Lincoln's mother.

AFTER suffering months from burns received last December Miss Minnie Culp died at her home in Louisville last Thursday morning. At the time of the accident she was preparing to go to an entertainment and had put on a pair of long-sleeved gloves, which she was cleaning with gasoline. It became ignited and she was terribly burned about the head and body.

THE President on Thursday last sent the appointments of Reuben M. Buckley and Charles F. Ogden, of Louisville, to the Senate for confirmation as Captains in the Eighth Regiment, colored immunes, to be commanded by Col. Huggins. The regiment will be mobilized at Fort Thomas, Ky. Capt. R. About Our Soldiers at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, KY., July 7, 1898.
EDITOR HERALD:—It is with pleasure I write you giving you a short description of our present way of living. We are located at Camp Corbin, about one mile from Main street.

Most of the boys are well satisfied, unless it is a few drones, and most of them have deserted, which is better for our company and Uncle Sam, too. We have plenty to eat, and we eat it, too, unless it is some fellow that wants an excuse to go home to see his mamma or his girl.

I was detailed to the hospital corps in an hour after I arrived, and have secured a good place in it which I will hold. So far there has been very little sickness.

The Colonel has just received a bulletin of the sinking of the four German ships by Dewey at Manila, which the boys received with a shout.

In the examinations there is an average of about 8 to the 100 rejected. Our company will be mustered in today under Captain Patrick. We are well pleased with him as Captain, and he treats us nicely. George Taulbee came to us yesterday. The people of Lexington think us very tough, and I guess we are.

I will try and come home on a furlough before we leave this place. With regards to inquiring friends, I remain yours, very respectfully,

C. B. AMYX.

MRS. NANNIE KASH will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better ½ for a half bushel of nice apples.

OUR colored friends, Noah Taylor and Sarah Isom, have the thanks of the editor and his better ½ for some nice fruit.

MRS. ELLIS JOHNSON, of Lacy Creek, will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better ½ for a bountiful mess each of beans and beets.

MRS. BELLE GODSEY will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better ½ for a dozen of the finest cucumbers we have seen this season.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS—10TH DISTRICT.

Hon. Thos. Y. Fitzpatrick,

OF FLOYD COUNTY.

THE Democratic party of Kentucky should now begin to look to its organization, and see that it is at once perfected and put in working order. The war with Spain has been, is, and will continue to attract much attention, but it should not distract Democrats from their duty. The Republican party, always on the lookout for just such an occasion, will avail of the attention given our army and navy, and get in their work while we are unwary. In every precinct in the State, if the Democratic party hopes to snatch success this fall, there should be an organization of the intelligent, wide-awake workers. Especially is this so in the Tenth Congressional district, and unless it is done, and done soon, the Democratic party will pay the penalty by its loss of prestige. Hon. T. Y. FITZPATRICK deserves endorsement by re-election, and every true party man will pull to put him back this fall.

J. O. WILSON, general manager, has our thanks for a copy of the July edition of the Insurance Monitor, New York City, in which he pays us the handsome compliment of reproducing the article, "Our Better I," which appeared in THE HERALD April 8th, 1897, and which has been copied from Dan to Bersheba. The Insurance Monitor is one of the handsomest trades journals in the United States, elegant in excellence in fact, and the compliment is therefore the more highly appreciated, and especially so on account of the flattering comments by the editor, WALTER S. NICHOLS. Both gentlemen are assured that the Monitor will be preserved among the precious papers of that same "Better I," and that she is even more grateful for their distinguished consideration than the writer.

THE rumor was current some time since that Squire W. B. DUFF, of Campton, would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature in the next listing of the aspirants. THE HERALD on Saturday interviewed him in regard to the report, and elicited from him the reply, "No, I will not be a candidate, and I am for Joe, if he makes the race." Our fellow-citizen JOE ROSE was the gentleman of whom we were speaking at the time, and the declination of Mr. DUFF leaves it dead easy for Mr. ROSE to secure the nomination if he wants it. Thus far, therefore, we have the honey of harmony in the Democratic county camp, and everything is lovely in the legislative race.

THE sinking of the Franco-American passenger steamship La Burgoyne in a collision with the British steamer Cromatyshe, off Sable Island in a dense fog, resulted in the loss of 600 lives. Out of a total of 831 persons aboard only 200 were saved, and of these only one woman, though there were over 300 women and children in the list of cabin and steerage passengers. Among the lost are many American people of prominence.

OUR old friend W. J. LAMPTON, of 16 West 881 street, New York, than whom there is not on the earth a cleverer fellow, has our thanks for many recent favors, among which a copy of the New York Clipper, containing the article "Our Better I." Mr. LAMPTON is not only a whole-souled gentleman, but by the way one of the best writers in America, and he never forgets his friends.

ONE of the latest engagements reported is that of Gov. BRADLEY and Col. CASTLEMAN, who are firing poisoned paper bullets at long range, the latter being in camp at Chickamauga and the former in his Castle-on-the-Craw. Governor BRADLEY says that it has all along been a hard matter to decide whether "CASTLEMAN" thought he was a part of the State Guard, or the State Guard a part of CASTLEMAN, and those who have read the newspapers recently and noticed the many Hicks coming from CASTLEMAN are inclined to bear the Governor out.

THE July edition of WALTER HURT's Gatling Gun, Cleveland, O., is just as good, or better, than the preceding issue. Among the best things of its contents are "Exclusive Euclid," truthful things about an aristocratic avenue; "The Fourth of July," by our own SOULE SMITH; "Editorial Eruptions"; "In Honor's Name," a poem by WALTER HURT, and many other things. It is full of red-hot reading, however, from cover to cover, and the announcement is made that the August number will contain a slice of sheol, of which the leader will be "The Sexual Sin." Get it before it melts. One dollar pays for it for 12 months.

THE announcement is made that Col. W. C. P. BRECKINRIDGE will in future edit the Lexington Morning Herald. The elegance of the diction of the editorials in that paper for some time past convinces us, however, that the statement is superfluous, for none other than he could pen the pretty things presented for the perusal of that journal's readers from time to time, nor are any so learned in the affairs of State and Nation. Col. BRECKINRIDGE is an admirable man, albeit he has his faults, not the least of which is that he belongs to the gold standard sentimentalists, and for that we are sorry.

EVERY true American will indorse the following, which we reproduce from the Baltimore American, and SCHLEY, the hero, should now be "jumped" over SAMPSON: "SCHLEY, the brave son of this loyal State, was the man who found the Spanish fleet and who destroyed it. The two facts are beyond all doubt, and SCHLEY takes rank with DEWEY as a hero of the war. Admiral SAMPSON, who was jumped from a captain over SCHLEY, was not in the fight at all, and Commodore WATSON, who was given command of the Flying Squadron for European service, ignoring SCHLEY, was coaling his flagship Newark at Guantanamo. These are the commanders who sent the dispatches to the Navy Department, and, although they did not have the grace to even mention SCHLEY's name, they cannot hide from the American people the glory of SCHLEY's performance. He was in command. He began the destruction of the Spanish fleet. He found it and he finished it. He did the work. Now give him the honor."

WHAT has become of WEYLER and his war-whoop? He could have aided the struggle long since. Nit!

THE Spanish commander at Santiago persisted in his refusal to surrender, and at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon the bombardment commenced.

THE Spaniards are evidently not posted as to the ability of the wire-pullers of America, else they would fortify with other than wire fence to stop our soldiers.

THE opinion prevails that President McKINLEY is giving CERVERA and his captured comrades far too much rope, unless, indeed, it be of the species known as Manila.

PEOPLE who used to go up against GLASS-EYED CHARLEY HENDERSON said he could beat the world working a "shell game," but the recent shell racket of SCHLEY, played on the Spaniards at Santiago, puts his performances to shame.

JUDGE HAZELRIGG, of the Appellate Court, has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. The recent gerrymander of the district by the legislature makes the district overwhelmingly Republican, and in that party the fight will be made for the place. Congressman COLSON, of Middleboro; Judge A. J. AUXIER, of Pike, and Judge G. W. GOURLEY, of Lee, are the Republicans mentioned as his successor. But how COLSON can hold a command in the army, and hold down a seat in the Court of Appeals at the same time is not apparent. He is a Congressman from the Eleventh district and Colonel of the Fourth Kentucky now, so that, paraphrasing Gov. BRADLEY's remark about Col. CASTLEMAN, it will soon be hard to determine whether COLSON is a part of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or the Commonwealth of a part of COLSON.
